Patrick J. McGroder III is a Founding Partner of Beus O'Connor McGroder PLLC, a premier boutique law firm concentrating on High Stakes Litigation and Plaintiffs Catastrophic Injury & Wrongful Death. Mr. McGroder leads the firm's Plaintiffs Catastrophic Injury & Wrongful Death practice.

He has been lead counsel in over 1,000 Plaintiffs personal injury cases, nearly 300 of which have resulted in verdicts or settlements in excess of one billion dollars recovered for clients. For more than 50 years, Mr. McGroder has tried cases ranging from murder to malpractice. He was selected as one of the ten best lawyers in Arizona and is named yearly as one of the 500 Best Trial Lawyers in the United States by Lawdragon, one of the most prestigious legal publications in America. In 2019, Mr. McGroder was selected for the Lawdragon Hall of Fame.

Mr. McGroder has been a finalist for the American Trial Lawyer of the Year Award given annually by Lawyers for Public Justice for his nationwide work representing families of police officers who burned alive in crashes because of a defective fuel system on Ford police cars. Mr. McGroder has handled many high profile cases, including medical malpractice, product liability, and aviation disasters. He is a proud fellow and a past President of the International Academy of Trial Lawyers, a peer selected group of the 500 best trial lawyers in the United States. He is also a fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and the International Society of Barristers. He was the third American to be named an Honorary Bencher of the Honorable Society of Kings Inns in Dublin, Ireland for his work in promoting relations between the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland.

Mr. McGroder was the recipient of the Kenneth P. Clancy Memorial Award by ABOTA for his unfailing commitment to the principles of professionalism, decency, and civility in the legal profession. He is one of the youngest members to be selected for the Maricopa County Bar Association Hall of Fame. His career highlights include the privilege of protecting and advocating the rights of injured victims for over 50 years; lead co-counsel in Ford Crown Victoria Police Interceptors fuel fed fire cases in Arizona and nationwide; lead counsel in police overtime class action litigation in Arizona; and representation of the families of fallen Granite Mountain Hot Shots. His representation of a Catholic Bishop charged with vehicular manslaughter was named the trial of the decade by the Arizona Republic.
