Patrick J. McGroder IV is an Attorney at Beus O'Connor McGroder PLLC, a premier boutique law firm concentrating on High Stakes Litigation and Plaintiffs Catastrophic Injury & Wrongful Death.

Mr. McGroder has represented victims in high-profile, complex catastrophic litigation and wrongful death cases, such as the Las Vegas Route 91 Shooting cases, Yarnell Granite Mountain Hotshot cases, UBER Death case, Chandler Explosion case, several different fraternity hazing matters and numerous catastrophic motor vehicle and medical malpractice injury cases. Mr. McGroder is humbled to represent victims who have been catastrophically injured and/or suffered unimaginable tragedies such as the death of a child or loved one. As a plaintiff's attorney, Mr. McGroder has the extraordinary ability to enact social change and ensure justice for those that have been harmed as a result of negligence.

Mr. McGroder attended Brophy College Preparatory and graduated in 2006. He graduated from the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Massachusetts. During his junior year, Mr. McGroder spent a year in Cork, Ireland studying abroad at the University College Cork. In Ireland, Mr. McGroder worked for a refugee legal aid clinic where he had the unique opportunity to assist families seeking asylum from political and social stigmatization and persecution. Mr. McGroder graduated from Holy Cross in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in history and a focus on Irish History and Creative Writing.

Mr. McGroder returned to Arizona and attended Phoenix School of Law. During law school, Mr. McGroder worked at the Maricopa County Attorney's Office prosecuting and assisting on felony cases, including complex murder and aggravated assault prosecutions. Mr. McGroder also attended a summer law program in Rome, Italy with Loyola University of Chicago School of Law.

After law school, Mr. McGroder worked at the Maricopa County Public Defender's Office for approximately four years. He represented hundreds of clients on complex criminal and civil matters and received multiple favorable jury trial verdicts. He has integrated himself into the world of high-stakes litigation. His oral advocacy skills and courtroom experience have allowed him to provide a persuasive and passionate approach to seeking justice on behalf of his clients.

Mr. McGroder has built his career focusing on clients' needs. He understands the all-encompassing ramifications of a catastrophic injury and how it tragically impacts every aspect of a client's life, work, and family. Through his unrelenting dedication and compassion, Mr. McGroder works day and night to ensure justice is served and his clients receive a comforting sense of finality from their sometimes inescapable nightmares. In many cases, the at-fault/negligent party will be charged criminally for their actions. Mr. McGroder will appear as victims' rights counsel on behalf of his civil clients to help navigate through the criminal justice system.

Mr. McGroder is a top-rated personal injury attorney in Arizona. He has been routinely named as Super Lawyers Rising Star and The National Trial Lawyers Civil Plaintiff Top 40 under 40. He is a frequent lecturer and donates his time as a board member of the Ronald McDonald House Charities and helps fundraise for Childhelp Charity, the Arizona Burn Foundation and Foster AZ. Mr. McGroder is a member of Executive Counsel Charities, which raises nearly $3,000,000 each year for children's charities in Arizona.

Mr. McGroder was previously the head coach of Brophy Mock Trial and has mentored numerous past students aspiring to become lawyers. In his free time, Pat spends his time with his daughter, plays ice hockey, and enjoys watching the Buffalo Bills & Buffalo Sabres.
